My colleague, Dr. Iyad Obeid, shared this video with me today:

This is an amazingly on point video.

I think anyone who wants to be a software engineer, or anyone who knows a software engineer and wants to better understand what makes them tick, ought to watch this. It really captures the life challenges programmers face 😊

There are a lot of great life lessons in this video. I especially liked the part about how the more experienced you become, the less code you write. I also liked the comments about striving for simplicity.

Enjoy.
