The syllabus has been updated. Please review it before class.

The first homework assignment has been posted. It is very straightforward.

The lecture schedule is tentative – we will rework the lecture schedule this semester to match the textbook. I'll post the first set of notes tomorrow morning before class. You can view an earlier version of them here:

https://isip.piconepress.com/courses/temple/ece_8527/lectures/2022_00_spring/lecture_01.pptx

Videos are also available online. You will be prompted for a username and password. Type "temple" for both.

See you in class tomorrow.
